

She was too scared to keep going ahead and lacked the courage to turn back.

Unable to move forward or back, the traveler suddenly stood still and tried to escape from the "path" she had been on all this time.

They had no one else, and to the very end, not even the adults realized what had been between them.

Breaking the spell that the witch put on her...
Changing back to her normal self...
"The girl who was no longer a traveler" realized for the first time that these things happened. The would also have the part of herself that was the "traveler in black."
